

PRESENTS

Beyond the Pattern: An Independent Designers Fashion Show

Thursday, May 1, 2014

7:00-9:30pm

Arts at the Armory, 191 Highland Ave.

Free Admission. Doors open at 6pm.

Seating is first come first serve, subject to capacity. Please arrive early for best seating!

Beyond the Pattern is a runway presentation exploring the interface between art and fashion. Using live models we will be displaying a visual cornucopia of wearable art ranging from chic couture, whimsical costumes, custom jewelry and accessories to constructed metal gowns and temple dance wear.

The Young Designers Challenge this year is a group of Somerville High School students from the fashion club. These budding fashionistas will be modeling the pieces they have designed and made with their teachers' guidance.

