

CALL TO SOMERVILLE ARTISTS!!!

Beyond the Pattern

SOS 2014 Fashion and Wearable Art Show

Thursday, May 1st, 7:00 pm, at the Armory

Somerville Open Studios 3rd live runway event showcasing the incredibly diverse work of local artists in fashion and wearable art.

Artists who design and create original wearable art are invited to participate in this year's live runway show. This show will provide a unique opportunity for artists working in wearable art to display their work in a dynamic way with live models.

Guidelines for Participation

All participating artists MUST REGISTER FOR SOMERVILLE OPEN STUDIOS
DEADLINE IS JANUARY 31!!!!

- Artists must live or maintain an art studio in Somerville and must register to participate in Somerville Open Studios.
- All work must be an original design, made by the artist, and shown on a human model.
- Work made from recycled/re-purposed clothing must be significantly altered so as to be reasonably considered original work.
- Work must be appropriate for a wide audience - no nudity.
- Each artist may submit up to 8 pieces.
- Artists must provide his/her own models though it is possible (and encouraged) to share models with other designers.
- All artists and models are required to attend the dress rehearsal on Wednesday, April 30th at 6pm at the Armory.

How to Participate

Please send a brief description of your work and three photos to JoAnne Coppolo, the Fashion Show Coordinator, at wearable.art@somervilleopenstudios.org if you are interested in participating. You can also indicate your interest by selecting the "Wearable Art Show" option during registration.
